

Progress of Religious Liberty. A telegram from Europe of the 17th, states that the Diet of Sweden has passed a law admitting dissenters and Jews to political rights, and that the King signed the law immediately.

State religious establishments have been the cause of mankind, since the world began. Pagan or Christian, so-called, for we cannot believe there is any pure Christianity in that hub of a church that is chained to a civil or military government of un-inspired rulers.

Best of religious liberty in the United States, and decidedly so, far as our constitutions and laws are concerned; but even in this country there is a constant tendency of some of the sects to ally themselves with the government, and to control and be controlled by it.

The Georgetown Times and the Enterprise. Col. B. H. Wilson of the Georgetown Times thus kindly notices us: "The last number of this excellent journal comes to us this week considerably enlarged and greatly improved."

The State Militia to be Organized. The Columbia correspondent of the Charleston News furnishes the annexed statement as coming from Governor Scott, at a chance meeting of the former with the latter:

The Governor was asked if there was any truth in the report that State arms were being distributed throughout the counties. He replied that arms had been sent to only one or two places—York County was mentioned as one—where the Ku Klux or some secret organization had been met treating Republicans, beating them and destroying their property.

The Pope on Religious Liberty. The London Catholic Mirror has an account of a conversation of the Pope with the American bishops now in Rome, in which he said, referring to religious liberty, that in view of the fact that his Church was as free as the air, he would not wish to see any restriction placed on the freedom of religious belief and worship.

Strange Vindication of Character. A man known as Mr. Burns, in New York, and famous as the keeper of a dog pit, after allowing religious services about his premises by pious persons bent on converting him and his vicious associates, was casually visited the other day by a reporter of the Herald, who found Mr. Burns kneeling in prayer.

The Federal Court House and Post Office. It gratifies us much to see that United States Senator Rozenszox has presented in the Senate a petition of citizens of South Carolina, praying an appropriation for the erection of a building for the accommodation of the post office, United States courts, and other offices pertaining to the service of the United States at Greenville.

Legislative News. The letter of J. H. R. gives the latest and most interesting news from Columbia.

The Carolina Colleges. Under the heading of the Carolina Colleges, we have taken pains to look for some general comments on the educational progress of the State, and the progress of the various institutions of higher learning.

The Literary Club. The Literary Club, which was organized by the Hon. Dr. B. M. L. and Dr. R. M. L., has held a meeting on the subject of the Carolina Colleges, and kindred topics, which was well attended.

Mexico. Revolutions in Mexico are so frequent that they scarcely attract attention abroad, and never surprise any one. There has been great glorification in the United States upon the overthrow of Maximilian and the destruction of his government.

Removal of Disabilities. Congress has before it a bill to provide for the removal of the political disabilities of all persons who were engaged in the Confederate war, except those who were members of Congress, or held high office in the Federal service.

Ice and Snow. Last Friday the weather changed to severe cold. On Monday, the thermometer at this place was down to 14 above zero.

Public Sunday School Meeting. We are requested to state that a public meeting of the Greenville Baptist Sunday School will take place next Sunday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock on which occasion prizes will be delivered to the children and several addresses made.

Local Information. Persons coming in possession of local information of any character whatever, will please communicate it promptly to our office for publication. Simply give the facts as occurring, no matter how plain the language, we will re-write if necessary, as well as withhold names where it is desired or unimportant to the statement.

Store House for Sale. Any person wishing to make an investment, would do well to refer to the advertisement in another column, of the offer for sale of the large and commodious Store recently occupied by HIGHTOWER & ALLEN.

Columbia Correspondence Greenville Enterprise. Passage of the Code—Educational Bill—Bill to provide pay for School Teachers for 1869—Road Law—Manner of holding the next General Election—D. T. Corbin—Civil Rights Bill—Indignation Meeting—Advertisement.

Mr. ROSSER YOUNG has sold his interest in the Knoxville Courier to T. P. HORN, R. A. THOMPSON and W. C. KERR. Mr. KERR will continue to control the editorial columns. Politically, the principles of the Courier will undergo no change.
